AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATER .- "The Colleen Bawn has made a decided hit, and as the play is truly Irish, Mr. Collins has full opportunity for the dis-play of his powers. The other parts of the play are well sustained, the cast being an excellent one; while the necessarily intricate shiftings of the scenery in spectacular drama is accomplished in a very effective manner.

FORD'S ATHENEUM .- This evening Mr. Hackett bids adieu to the Washington public, and Manager Ford has produced an excellent bill for the occasion. Mr. Hackett appears as Col. Nim-rod Wildfire in the comedy "Kentuckians in 1815," and as Mons. Mallet in "The Post Office Mistake." " My Wife's Second Floor" concludes the evening's entertainment. Mr McCni loch will recite the poem, "Shamus O'Brien." To-night's performance closes the spring season

CANTERBURY - We have again this evening, at Canterbury, "The Sons of Malta," wherein Harry Rice gives full vent to his comical powers. This week is the last of Miss Julia Mortimer's engagement, and the last also for the performance of the Gipsey's Lay." Lewis and Christie appear nightly in their gymnastic feats; and Millie Fowler glides through the dance with sylph-like

WASHINGTON ACADEMY OF MUSIC .- The free concerts at this place are remarkably popular, for the reason that the music, vocal and instrumental, is of first class order, and the best refreshments obtainable in the city, are to be found at Rosen-

SEVENTH WARD REPUBLICAN MEETING .-- Th straightout republicans of the Seventh Ward held an adjourned meeting last night in Potomac Hall Mr. John R. Elvans in the chair, and Mr. Reuber

Bacon seting as secretary.

Mr. Northrup said he desired at the last meet ing to offer a resolution. He thought that in the selection of candidates they should have been represented in a convention of the wards; but as their friends in the other wards had seen fit to pursue a different course, he would cheerfully submit. He supposed that all would go for Mr Wallach in preference to Haliday. Mr. N. had several other resolutions endorsing the course of the Administration in relation to the slavery question, and in relation to the education of colored children. Mr. N. then read the following :

Whereas we have found that our desires for the success of the Administration in putting down the existing rebellion, and our readiness to adopt any measures tending to strengthen the Govern ment and the Union, led us last year to place undue confidence in the professions of some who sought our suffrages, and to accept too easily their assurances of an unwavering and unconditional devotion to the Union : Therefore,

Resolved, That as sufficient time has elapsed for a full development of feelings and views on this subject, we will, at this election, take no man " on trust," and will vote for none who have nct given clear and unmistakable evidence, by their actions as well as words, that they are the firm and steady supporters of the present Administration and Government of the United States. Resolved. That the cavils about the prohibition of slavery in this District, where it has had no legal existence for years, devolving a duty on Congress to do it, as the Constitution gives no power to that body or the people to establish or even sustain slavery outside of State limits, evinces, we think, a disposition to throw obstacles in the way of the Administration and other branches of the Government. Resolved, That the cavils at the President's recommendation respecting slavery in the States. together with a sensitiveness on the subject of confiscation, evinces, we think, an undue and unsafe regard for an institution which is manifestly the cause of the wickedest rebellion the sun ever shone upon, jeopardizing our lives, sacrificing the lives of friends, and bringing burdensome taxes on the loyal people of the country, and this after it seems evident to everybody else that slavery has received its death-blow at the hands of those who, for its extension and perce if possible, destroy the best government in the world-would ruin because they cannot rule. Resolved, That we kindly suggest to the new converts to the doctrine of the injustice of taxing the colored people of this Dictrict for the education of while children exclusively, that they cease their hostility to the education of colored children, and consent to the application of the school tax paid by the colored people to the education of colored children. (Our application to the secretary of the meeting for the privilege of copying these resolutions, or gathering their purport, was denied with a dis-courtely that might not inaptly be termed "baconfan;" but through the kindness of Mr. Northrup, their mover, we obtained a copy as above 1 Mr. G. W. Garrett thought, with due respect to his friend, that as at the former meeting resolutions were adopted as a basis of operations, these resolutions were entirely out of place, and therefore moved to lay them on the table.

Mr. Lycett seconded the motion, saying he did so for the same reason as given by the mover Mr. Northrup proceeded to explain that the res olutions formerly adopted did not cover the questions referred to in those now offered. They had been started since that meeting.

Mr. Bacon said that though he agreed to the sentiments of the resolutions, he doubted the expediency of adopting them at this time. At the former meeting resolutions were adopted as a basis, but they endorsed no candidate He thought at the first of a convention, but the other Wards have chosen a different course, and the general expression is in favor of Mr. Wallach. The question of slavery is making way with itself very fast, and is not brought into this contest. Mr Wallsch is undoubtedly to be the next Mayor of Washington, but if any one doubts his loyalty let him not vote for him.

Mr. Bacon said he had not endorsed Mr. Wallach for Mayor, nor Mr. Semmes for Alderman, but if it is best, let us nominate and vote for them Mr. B. also spoke of the various cannidates for Council, endorsing Mr. Murtagh and Mr. Mitchell as far as he knew of them.

Mr. Northrup said the questions referred to in the resolutions were chiefly those reised in the tirade against the administration because of its management of the slavery subject, and it was his desire to have their sentiments expressed on those subjects. Mr. Van Vicet approved of the spirit of the resolutions, but would not advocate their parage because they had already agreed upon their platform (which had be en adopted at their first meet-He would be sorry to see the resolution reiating to slavery passed, because it did not state the facts. He went on to argue that slavery had no legal existence in the District. The laws relating to slavery at the time of the cession of the District to the General Government were those of 1715, which provided for holding native Africans and their descendants to two generations staves, out the third generation was to have been free Subsequently other laws were made by the Legis lature of Maryland, looking to a further bondage of slaves, but those laws had no effect in the District-hence slavery here was unlawful. Mr. Northrup .- If the resolutions are not perfect, they can be amended. Mr. Van Vicet continuing, said that he had no objection to Mr. Wallach, and so far as the educational question was concerned, he heartfly endorsed him. He read the following extract from a message of Mr Wallach, as expressive of his views on that subject:

" Happily for the cause of Christianity and civilization, the hand of time has long since swept into the deep shades of oblivion the whole series of objections which in years past were advanced by the ignorant and inconsiderate. [Against free schools.] That grand problem, whether or no the 'masses' shall be educated, can no longer be considered an open question, or one which will allow of the slightest dispute, in regard not only to its utility, but absolute necessity 17

The Chair here stated that debate was out of order, and that it had b en allowed only because the meeting was more of a conversational one. The resolutions were then laid on table. Mr. Garrett moved that Richard Wallach be declared the choice of the meeting for Mayor;

The following was declared the ward ticket: For Alderman-John H. Semmes. For Common Council-W. J. Murtagh, C. W

Mitchel and Augustus Edson.

For Assessor-Peter Hepburn. This is the same ticket as that nominated by the unconditional Union Club, with the exception that Mr. Edson is nominated in place of Mr.

Wilson.-Rep.] Mr. Garrett moved the appointment of an executive committee; carried. Messrs. G. W. Garrett, J. R. S. Van Vleet, Handley, Augustus Ridgely and Reuben Bacon were appointed.

The meeting then adjourded.

A " PLUG" Muss -Light night about 10 o'clock a number of soldiers belonging to the 16th In-diana regiment, entered a tobacco store on Pennsylvania avenue, near Third street, and called for a " plug of tobacco," throwing down in payment a $20 Treasury note. The tobacconist could not make the change, and the Indianian, craving the weed, and having too much '-tanglefoot' aboard, used harsh language, and a regular war of words ensued, the soldier, as usual, being "the best man in the army," and able to whip anything that ever jumped. After considerable effor: the Hoosier was pacified, and marched away with his companions perfectly "self-satisfied." SEVENTH WARD (NIX) MEETING .- The meet ing of "the voters of the Seventh Ward, all those opposed to abolitionism," which was to have opposed to abolitionism," which was to have been held at Island Hall last evening for the pur pose of selecting delegates to the Democratic Mayoralty Convention, which meets to-night at the Franklin engine-house, turned out to be a fizzle. The half was opened about 8 o'clock, and a couple of candles lighted to attract the "unterrified," and during the hour their luminous glare shone forth a dozen persons appeared, but whether the callers of the meeting were present or not is not known, as no attern at was made ent or not is not known, as no attempt was made to "organiza."

SIXTH WARD POLITICS .- The "National Union voters of the Sixth Ward held a meeting last night at the hall of the Anecostia engine-house, and organized by appointing Mr. F. McNerhaney chairman, and Mr. F. S. Ober

The Chair stated the object of the meeting be the nomination of candidates to be supported at the ensuing municipal election, and the selection of delegates to represent the ward in the city convention for the nomination of a candidate for Mayor. None should be nominated who are not National Union Democrats, and oppose to every form of abolitionism. This contest, h said, is one which will place the reins of the city government either in the hands of men who wil sustain and support the Constitution of the United States and the charter of the city, or of those who are led away by the perverted and dark spirit of abolitionism. Now was the time and the hour for every man to show his hand.

The following gentlemen were unanimously declared the delegates to the city convention:

Messrs. S. F. Gates, M. Marceron, T. A. Tolson, . W. Smoot and F. McNerhaney. The following nominations were made unanimously For Alderman-George A. Bohrer. For Common Council-J. D. O'Donnell, T. A.

folson and F. S. Ober. Some one suggested that resolutions should b adopted.

The Chair stated that he had been informed that the convention would adopt a platform on which all the candidates could stand, and he thought that would be sufficient.

Mr. James Burgess moved the adoption of the late address of the democratic members of Congress. They should first endorse them here, and hen let the convention adopt them. They must ske a stand to support the Constitution, and to have the city charter properly carried out. Why should we be afraid to express our approbation of the democratic address? As freemen we have a right to speak, and should not be afraid of tyranny Mr. J. R. Queen had no objection to the democratic address. They all individually endorsed them, and it was not necessary to adopt them in this meeting. The spirit breathed in the address was correct; but he was opposed to mixing up national with municipal affairs. Let us go into this fight and whip the republicans and abolitionists on their own ground; restore the Constitution and strictly carry out the charter of the

Mr. Burgess did not see why they should fear to endorse the address, and hoped his motion would prevail We had, he supposed, the same rights as any other people in the United States. Their object was not simply the carrying out the city charter; but they had a higher duty and work-the restoration of the Constitution to what it was a few months ago. The gag-law had been applied, but he was opposed to having it crammed down the people's throats. All freemen must arouse, and if we do not we will be under a monarchical government in this country before

The motion to adopt the address unanimousl A motion was adopted authorizing the Chair to ppoint a vigilance committee of twenty-five. Adjourned THE GREAT PEDESTRIAN FEAT -Mr. Ed. P Weston, the well known pedestrian, whose pro posal to walk from this city to Boston, Mass., (478 miles) in eight consecutive days, has made con siderable talk, entered upon his undertaking on Monday last, leaving the Capitol Building at 5% p. m., being thirty minutes beyond his proposed starting time at 5 p. m. He reached Beltsville at a quarter before 8 p. m , took supper there, and when seven miles from Baltimore partook of some more refreshments, and arrived at the Eutaw House, Baltimore, at 3 a. m. of Tuesday, precise ly the schedule time, although losing, as already stated, one half hour in the start. Mr. C. J Eaton, who accompanied the pedestrian in a carriage from this city, informs us that Mr W. made the last ten miles into Baltimore in better time than any other portion of the distance, and arrived in Baltimore perfectly fresh. In fact his pace was so good that Mr. Eaton was compelled to rses on the trot to keep up vith him At 12 m. yesterday, Mr. Weston resumed his task, and considerable interest is felt in the result of his "mevement upon Philadelphia," as he undertakes the remarkable feat of walking the entire distance, one hundred and three miles, via the Conowingo bridge across the Susquehanna, in twenty-four consecutive hours, including all PAID OFF .- The 16th regiment Indiana volunteers was paid off yesterday. This was a one vear regiment, and their time has just expired. Some of the privates received as high as $75, their pay having been standing for some time They left a great deal of their money at the clothing stores of the city, a great many of them casting off their regimentals and arraying themselves in citizens' dress. As usual, too, no mean portion of their hard earnings found its way to the money drawers of lager beer and whisky saloons. The pickpockets and thieves were around in full force, and two or three of the soldiers had their packets picked while at the depot waiting for the train to convey them homeward. Pickpockets are "mean cusses" anyhow, but they who would pick the pocket of a soldier, and rob him of his dearly earned pay, must have hearts depraved and rotten to the very core.

A FIRST-CLASS ESTABLISHMENT.-Thomas J May, late of the firm of Clagett & May, has now on hand at his store, 308 Pa. avenue, a very supe rior stock of foreign and domestic dry goods. silks and satins, cloths, cassimeres and vestings, linens and flannels-adapted to first-class city trade. Mourning goods of the best quality, as well as fancy and plain goods, may be obtained here at all times. Customers seeking first-class goods may find them at May's, at less prices than they pay for inferior goods of more unscrupulous dealers. We advise our lady readers to pay this establishment a call when shopping.

CORRECTION -In our notice of the meeting i the Fourth Ward, held on Thursday night last, a portion of the third resolution (offered by Mr Edmonston) was unintentionally omitted. spould have read-

"Resolved, That, in affirming our devotion to the Union, as against the disorganizing and revolutionary doctrines of disunionists, we deem i no less our duty to express our abhorrence of the equally disorganizing and revolutionary princi-ples of abolitionists,' &c., &c., making the application to disunionist a from every section.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION MEN OF THE FOURTH WARD, in pursuance of public notice, met last night to nominate a candidate for the Common Council, in place of Mr. Wm. Bates, who had declined. Charles H. Uttermehie, esq., was called to the chair, and Mr. E. C. Eckloff acted as secretary.

Mr. Joseph Follensbee and Mr. Samuel Byingon were then put in nomination. Quite a number of gentlemen spoke in favor of the candidates, declaring however, in every case, that should the majority present prefer the other candidate they would most heartly unite with them to make the nomination unanimous. Upon ballotting, Mr. Follensbee received majority of the votes cast, and was declared duly Upon motion of Dr. John Clark (who had nominated Mr. Byington) the nomination was enthusiastically declared unanimous.

Upon call for speeches the meeting was acceptably addressed by Messrs. Pepper, Uttermehle, Clayton, T. B. Brown, and others. The Chairman stated that he would repair to the polls with the oath in his pocket, and suggested the propriety of all true men doing the same. The secession party, trying to further their traitorous end, were cowardly working in the dark; and whenever we had any doubts of a man's Unionism we must put him to the test by tendering the oath. Many traitors would thus be excluded, most justly, from voting. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. - Philadelphia Print Butter at 25 cents per pound, fresh daily, at Wilson's Philadelphia Provision Store, 119 Pennsylsylvania avenue, between 19th and 20th sts. 3t*

COUNTY SHEERING

SECOND EDITION

THREE O'CLOCK, P. M.

FROM DIXIE. The New York Times' Peninsula correspondent whose hair is evidently "on eend" about the overwhelming force of the Rebels in Virginia, sees snakes" along the line of the Rappahannock and about Gordonsville, that have no exist-

Instead of 20,000 troops in arms about Gordonslle, as he alleges, we know, positively, that the Rebels have now but a single brigade (four regiments), commanded by L O'B. Branch, ex-(N C.) member of Congress, between their Bowling Green forces opposite (below) Fredericksburg and the Blue Ridge-hardly a company of which are at Gordonsville. Its headquarters are near the Rapidan station of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. Branch keeps only about 200 men east of the Rapidan, doing picket and scout duty in Culpeper county. They now scout east only as far as Brandy station, five miles from Rappahan. nock-river station of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad .

We are no believer that the Bowling Green force of the Rebels mentioned above is more than ten thousand strong, if so great. That is: the force threatening to dispute McDowell's progress from Fredericksburg to Richmond.

STATE PRISONERS.

Two weeks ago Jeff. Davis had seven hundred and fifty loyal citizens of Virginia in his Castle Godwin and Carey street prisons in Richmond. Every hour was adding to the number; as it was but necessary for one to express a doubt of the immaculacy of the Confederate Government, to be denounced, arrested, and sent down to Richmond.

Three of these prisoners were recently taken out and hung without judge or jury. The prisoners are packed so closely in their confined quarters that at night they are obliged to lay down to sleep "spoon fashion," and turn over simultaneously by platoons.

PREPARING THEM FOR IT. The correspondence between Jeff. Davis and John Letcher, with reference to the rumors conerning the former's alleged purpose of "abandoning Richmond"-news of which reached us last night, is neither more nor less than an effort on their part to prepare the minds of Virginia secessionists either for Jeff's abandonment of Richmond without a fight, or for the fall of Richmond if he ventures a fight in its defence. His pledge not to abandon Virginia if he loses Richmond, but to continue the war on her soil for twenty years," is mere gammon-amounting to no more than his and Letcher's assertions

Yesterday, due experiments were made at the savy-yard here to test the capability of the description of iron armor adopted by our Navy Department to resist shot.

It was found that it amounts to a perfect shield against such ordnance as easily pierced armor in England) precisely similar to that of the celebrated Warrior. We decline publishing aught concerning the details of these experiments, which, however, proved perfectly satisfactory, as explained above.

THE MAIN REBEL ARMY. Information, on which we have every reason to rely, from different counties of Eastern Virginia, satisfies us that they have conscripted every abiebodied man in Lastern Virginia on whom they could lay hands, and driven them, like sheep, to the Peninsula. This fact accounts for the large nominal army believed to be opposed to that of Gen. McClellan, as well as for its state of utter disorganization and demoralization. The more of such troops Jeff Davis has, the worse he will

CHARGE OF ATTEMPT TO COMMIT A RAPE .- A 10 o'clock this morning the case of Thos. Clements, alias Smith, charged with an attempt to commit a rape upon Susan Riley last night at the Ebbett House, was taken up by Justice Clark, Mr. Wharton appearing as counsel for the defendant.

The complainant is a young woman, probably twenty years of age, and of modest appearance. She was placed upon the stand, and testified that last night she was in her bedroom scrubbing it. and heard footsteps approaching, but supposed it was one of the other servant girls. Upon the steps entering her room she got up from her work, and saw this man there. She had never seen him before, and is acquainted with no man in Washington but those of the house. She asked him what he wanted, and he replied that he was looking for a room, naming the number. She told him to go to the office, as that was the proper place to inquire. He then told her he had her up there, and would do as he pleased with her. She told him that he would not, and he seized her around the waist. She resisted and struggled until she got to the door, and escaped down stairs, with her dress torn all around. She met the private watchman and bad Clements arrested. The prisoner had been drinking, but was not drunk.

Patrolman Ferry testified that he was sent for got to Fourteenth street he resisted with great violence, and gave the officers great trouble in securing him. He had been drinking, but knew what he was about.

Mr. Albert H. Craney, proprietor of the Ebbett House, testified that Susan is a stranger compara-tively in Washington, having been in the city about eight months. Witness was below, in the bar-room, and hearing a noise, went up stairs to see about it, and found Daniel Myers, the watchman, coaxing the prisoner down; but he knew nothing of the charge.

Daniel Myers, the private watchman, testified that the complainant came down to him, apparently much excited, and told him what had happened. Witness went up and found the prisoner on the landing of the stairs. Clements had been drinking, but was not drunk. When Susan came down she was greatly excited, and her clothes torn. The prisoner resisted the patrolman very obstinately on Fourteenth street.

Mr. Wharton asked a further postponement of the case till Friday next, to enable him to produce certain witnesses. Justice Clark ordered the prisoner to give ball—$500 in his own and $400 in an independent acknowledgment—and in default committed him to jail for further hearing. RIOTOUS SOLDIERS. - Yesterday afternoon Uniontown, opposite the Navy Yard, was the scene of much disorder, owing to the doings of some hundred or more soldiers belonging to the 99th Pennsylvania regiment, which is stationed in the vicinity. It appears that the men, having been paid off recently, were on a general spree yesterday—drinking and carousing. The police finding that some of the storekeepers were seiling liquor to them, notified them to desist, and on Sergt. Barker entering a store for that purpose a party of the soldiers set on him, and boat him in an unmerciful manner about the head and face. He immediately sent word to the guard at the bridge, and they came over and arrested some eight or ten, who were taken to the Central guardhouse. This, however, did not seem to have any effect other than to enrage the men, and they set about to "take the town," going into the houses, driving the women out, and committing other acts of violence, among others assaulting Justice Cull, who was returning from a visit. The facts were reported to Gen. Wadsworth, and a company of cavalry and two companies of infantry immediately dispatched to arrest them. But before they succeeded in doing so they were obliged to use their arms-several being wound ed with bayonets, and one being shot, (report says killed.) They arrested nearly sixty of the most riotous, and brought them to the guardhouse at a late hour last night.

BASE BALL-National vs. Washington -Tte first match game of the season (and the only one the Washington ever engaged in) was played yesterday afternoon between the abovenamed clubs, on the finely situated grounds of the National. The game resulted in favor of the Nationals, by a majority of forty runs.

On the part of the Nationals, Ned Hibbs' batting was superb, he making five home runs; while Walden took good care of all balls which came in his region, and made several very fine On the part of the Washingtons, Mesers. Sharretts and Marr, as catcher and pitcher, were also excellent. Johnson on the first, and McIntire on the second bases, played well. Potter, as short, was very active, and with McHaren did some fine fielding. The following is the score : 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Innings. Washington 3 5 1 1 3 1 5 2 National 1 9 10 8 8 3 5 10 Home runs-Ned Hibbs, 5, Gorman, 3, Whiting. 3; French, 1; Johnson, 1.

Scorer for the Washington-A. J. West. Umpire-Mr. J. Clark, of Brooklyn, N. Y. ARREST OF FEMALES .- Last night the Provest Guard made a descent upon two houses in the Second Ward tolerably well known to soldiers, one on D, near Thirteenth street, north side, from which several fancifully dressed girls were escorted about nine o'clock to the Central Guardhouse; the other on Twelfth street, near D, west side, from which another squad, still more fancifully attired, was also escorted to the Military
